DOÑA PEPA

WITH BEE HONEY

Bright amber colour.
It is a balsamic glaze with very sweet notes due to the combination of honey with fruity hints of peach and plum, but with the acidic and refreshing touch of wine vinegar.

Tasting notes:
With a gel texture, velvety and shiny.

DOÑA PEPA

WITH FOREST FRUITS

It is characterised by its fresh and sour fruit flavour.
Its raspberry, blackberry, strawberry and blueberry aromas stand out, combined with the sherry vinegar's own esters, achieving a complex and balanced glaze.

Tasting notes:
Gel texture, garnet colour with violet tones and shine.

DOÑA PEPA

WITH BLACK GARLIC

It goes very well with meat, oily fish, rice dishes and other stews.
It has a shiny appearance and a dark brown, almost black colour, with liquorice-chocolate tones.

Tasting notes:
Persistent smell of black garlic, with floral and acidic notes typical of vinegar.
Its flavour is predominantly sweet and sour, with a marked garlic taste in perfect balance.

DOÑA PEPA

SWEET PIRI PIRI

Recommended as a condiment for chips, tacos, wraps and burritos; and served with chicken, pork or grilled vegetables. It also goes well with fried or grilled fish, such as prawns, squid or fish fillets; and pasta dishes, salads and tofu.

Tasting notes:
A bright salmon colour with cayenne powder and visible garlic cloves. A viscous, creamy and smooth texture. Pungent, with spices and esters reminiscent of sherry vinegar. Sweet and tart from the outset. With a lingering spicy finish and an aftertaste of lemon, garlic and salt.
